1. Visit the Casino de Monte-Carlo

No trip to Monte Carlo would be complete without a visit to the world-famous Casino de Monte-Carlo. This grand casino is a sight to behold, and it's a great place to try your luck at roulette, blackjack, or poker. Even if you don't gamble, it's worth taking a tour of the casino to admire its opulent architecture and décor.

2. Stroll through the Jardin Exotique

The Jardin Exotique is a beautiful botanical garden that offers stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea. The garden is home to a wide variety of plants, including cacti, succulents, and tropical flowers. There are also several fountains and sculptures scattered throughout the garden, making it a great place to relax and take a break from the hustle and bustle of Monte Carlo.

3. Visit the Prince's Palace

The Prince's Palace is the official residence of the Prince of Monaco. This grand palace is located on a hilltop overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, and it offers stunning views of the city. The palace is open to the public for tours, and visitors can admire its opulent state rooms, art collection, and gardens.

4. Shop on the Avenue de la Condamine

The Avenue de la Condamine is Monte Carlo's main shopping street. This street is lined with luxury boutiques, jewelry stores, and art galleries. It's a great place to find souvenirs, gifts, and designer clothes. Even if you don't plan on spending any money, it's worth taking a walk down the Avenue de la Condamine to admire the window displays.

5. Dine at a Michelin-starred restaurant

Monte Carlo is home to several Michelin-starred restaurants. These restaurants offer some of the finest dining experiences in the world. If you're looking for a special occasion meal, be sure to book a table at one of Monte Carlo's Michelin-starred restaurants.

6. Attend a performance at the Opéra de Monte-Carlo

The Opéra de Monte-Carlo is one of the world's most famous opera houses. This grand opera house hosts a variety of performances throughout the year, including operas, ballets, and concerts. Even if you're not a fan of opera, it's worth taking a tour of the Opéra de Monte-Carlo to admire its beautiful architecture and décor.

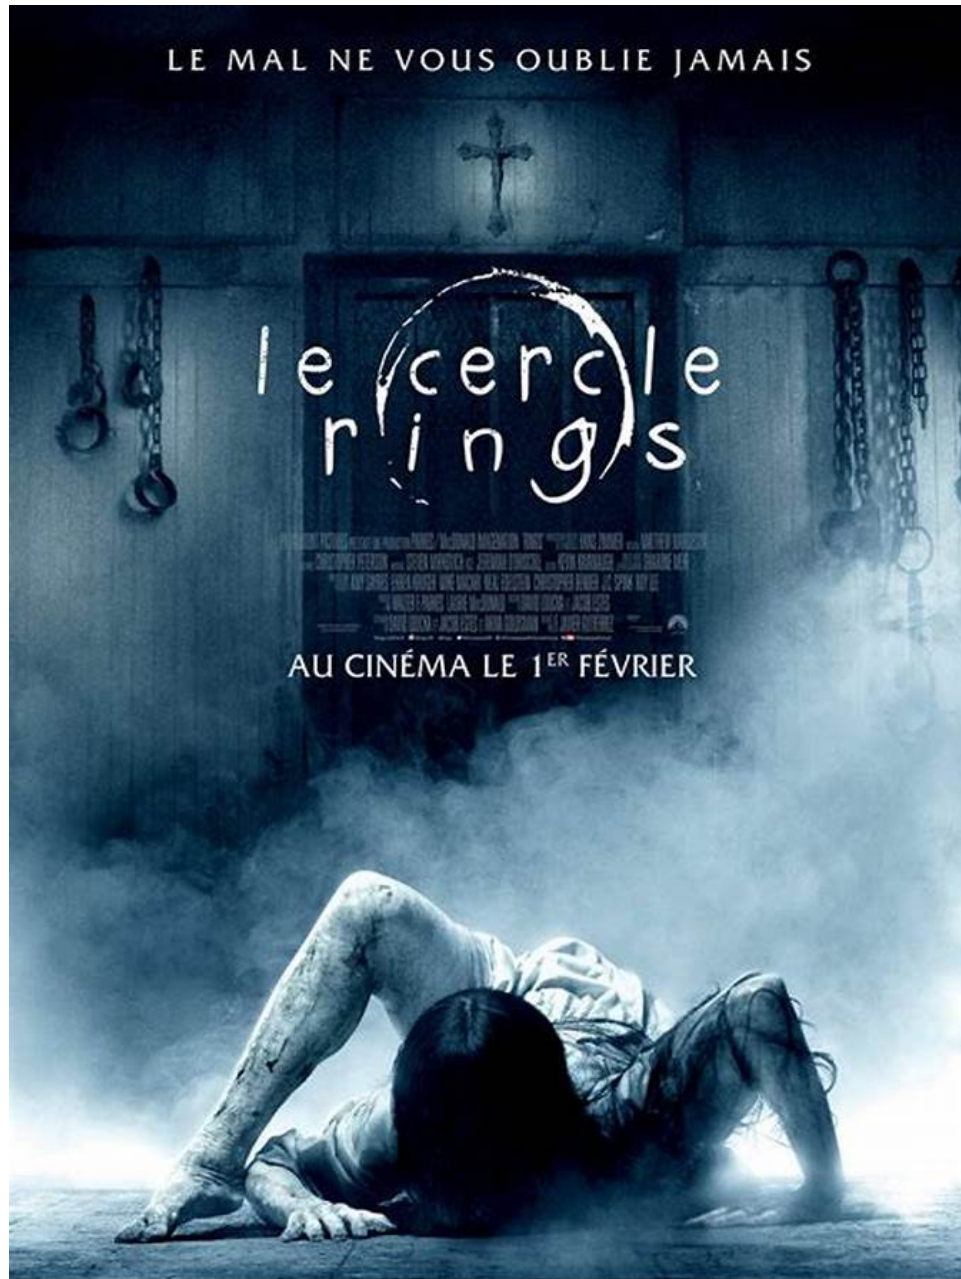

7. Visit the Musée Océanographique

The Musée Océanographique is a world-renowned oceanography museum. This museum is home to a vast collection of marine life, including fish, sharks, and dolphins. The museum also has a number of interactive exhibits that teach visitors about the ocean and its inhabitants.

8. Take a boat trip to the Îles de Lérins

The Îles de Lérins are a group of islands located just off the coast of Monte Carlo. These islands are a great place to escape the hustle and bustle of the city and enjoy some peace and quiet. There are several boat trips that depart from Monte Carlo to the Îles de Lérins, and the journey takes about 30 minutes.

9. Go for a hike in the Parc National du Mercantour

The Parc National du Mercantour is a beautiful national park located just a short drive from Monte Carlo. This park is home to a variety of hiking trails, ranging from easy to challenging. There are also several lakes and waterfalls in the park, making it a great place to go for a swim or a picnic.

10. Relax on the beaches of the Côte d'Azur

Monte Carlo is located on the Côte d'Azur, which is known for its beautiful beaches. There are several beaches within easy reach of Monte Carlo, including Larvotto Beach, Plage du Solarium, and Plage Mala. These beaches are a great place to relax and soak up the sun.

Monte Carlo is a great place to visit for a luxury vacation. However, there are also plenty of fun things to do in Monte Carlo on a budget. Whether you're interested in gambling, shopping, dining, or simply relaxing on the beach, Monte Carlo has something to offer everyone.
