The story follows a group of historians who discover a way to travel through time. They use their knowledge of the past to change the course of history, but soon realize that their actions have unintended consequences.

As they travel through different eras, the historians encounter famous figures from history, including Leonardo da Vinci, Marie Curie, and Abraham Lincoln. They learn about the challenges and triumphs of these individuals, and come to understand the complex forces that have shaped our world.

But the historians' journey is not without its dangers. They must face the threat of being erased from history, and they must constantly grapple with the ethical implications of their actions.

Ultimately, The Historians is a story about the power of the human spirit. It is a story about the choices we make, and the consequences of those choices. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
