Nestled amidst the rolling hills and meandering rivers of Wales, the valley between Chepstow and Plynlimon offers a haven for walkers of all levels. With its rich tapestry of history, culture, and natural beauty, this region is a walker's paradise, beckoning you to embark on an unforgettable journey of discovery.

A Walk Through Time

As you traverse the valley's ancient paths, you'll encounter a rich historical tapestry that spans centuries. From the Roman fortress of Gobannium to the medieval castles of White Castle and Raglan, the valley bears witness to the ebb and flow of time. Explore the ruins of Tintern Abbey, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture, and marvel at the engineering marvel of the Pontcysyllte Aqueduct, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Nature's Embrace

The valley's natural beauty is equally captivating. The River Wye meanders through the landscape, its banks adorned with ancient oak trees and lush meadows. The Brecon Beacons National Park, with its rugged peaks and cascading waterfalls, offers breathtaking panoramas. Ascend the summit of Sugar Loaf for panoramic views of the valley and beyond.
