Chapter 1: The Literary Heart of Moscow

Our journey begins in the bustling metropolis of Moscow, a city steeped in literary heritage. We'll visit the grand halls of the Kremlin, where history unfolds at every turn. Together, we'll explore the vibrant streets and iconic landmarks that have inspired countless writers, from the grandeur of Red Square to the bohemian haunts of Arbat.

Chapter 2: Along the Volga River

As we leave Moscow behind, we embark on a picturesque voyage along the mighty Volga River. This waterway has been a source of inspiration for centuries, featuring prominently in the works of Chekhov, Turgenev, and Gogol. We'll sail past ancient towns and tranquil countryside, immersing ourselves in the timeless spirit of Russian literature.

Chapter 3: The Cossacks and the Caucasus

Our journey takes us further south, to the legendary lands of the Cossacks and the majestic Caucasus Mountains. We'll explore the vibrant cultures and traditions of this region, tracing the footsteps of Tolstoy, Lermontov, and Pushkin. From the rolling hills of Rostov-on-Don to the towering peaks of Mount Elbrus, the Caucasus offers a breathtaking backdrop for literary exploration.

Chapter 4: The Crimean Peninsula

As we approach the Black Sea, we reach the Crimean Peninsula, a land of historical significance and literary enchantment. We'll visit the ancient ruins of Chersonesos, wander through the vineyards of Massandra, and soak up the sun on the golden beaches of Yalta. This is where Chekhov penned his masterpiece "The Lady with the Dog," and where poets like Mandelstam and Tsvetaeva found inspiration amidst the Crimean landscape.

Chapter 5: Odessa and the Black Sea Coast

Our literary odyssey culminates in the vibrant port city of Odessa, a cultural hub on the shores of the Black Sea. We'll immerse ourselves in its bustling streets, elegant architecture, and vibrant literary scene. From the works of Babel and Paustovsky to the contemporary voices of Ukrainian literature, Odessa offers a glimpse into the dynamic literary landscape of the region.

Our journey from Moscow to the Black Sea has been an extraordinary literary pilgrimage, connecting us with the rich heritage and captivating voices of Russia and Ukraine. Guided by New York Review Classics, we've traversed time and space, exploring the landscapes, cultures, and stories that have shaped these nations. This literary odyssey will forever enrich our understanding and appreciation of the human experience in these extraordinary lands.
