Beck and Haskins argue that Biden is a weak and incompetent leader who is beholden to the radical left. They say that his policies are leading America down a dangerous path towards socialism and tyranny.

The authors provide a chilling account of the rise of fascism in America. They trace the movement's roots back to the early 20th century and show how it has gained traction in recent years.

Beck and Haskins warn that America is on the brink of a fascist takeover. They say that Biden's presidency is the final step in the process.

The book is a must-read for anyone who is concerned about the future of America. It is a powerful and persuasive indictment of Biden's presidency and the rise of fascism.
