Stalky & Co., the legendary creation of master storyteller Rudyard Kipling, has captivated the hearts of readers for over a century. These original classics, meticulously annotated, bring the adventures of Stalky, Beetle, and McTurk to life with unprecedented depth and insight.

A Cast of Unforgettable Characters

Stalky, the mastermind of the trio, is a brilliant strategist with an unyielding determination. His quick wit and audacity make him a formidable force, but it is his unwavering loyalty to his friends that truly defines him.

Beetle, the quiet and observant one, is the heart of the group. His keen intellect and empathy make him a trusted confidant, while his unassuming nature masks a surprising strength of character.

McTurk, the brawny and impulsive member of the trio, is the epitome of loyalty and courage. His physical prowess and unwavering spirit make him an invaluable ally, but his quick temper often leads him into trouble.

Captivating Schoolboy Adventures

Stalky & Co. navigate the complexities of boarding school life with a mix of cunning, mischievousness, and genuine camaraderie. From outwitting the pompous headmaster to tricking their unsuspecting peers, their adventures are both entertaining and thought-provoking.

Their escapades provide a glimpse into the British public school system of the late 19th century, with its strict hierarchies and emphasis on discipline. Yet, through the lens of Stalky & Co., we also see the resilience, ingenuity, and indomitable spirit of youth.

Annotated for a Deeper Appreciation
