In the breathless first installment of The Lying Game series, Sara Shepard weaves a twisted tale of revenge, deception, and the unbreakable bond between sisters.

Emma Pax has always felt like an outsider in her small town. But everything changes when she receives a mysterious text message that says, "Sutton Mercer is your identical twin." Shocked and confused, Emma tracks down Sutton to a prep school in the wealthy town of Bexley. Sutton is everything Emma is not: beautiful, popular, and seemingly perfect. But as Emma gets closer to Sutton, she realizes that her twin is hiding dark secrets.

When Sutton goes missing, Emma is drawn into a dangerous world of lies and deceit. She must navigate a treacherous web of suspicion and betrayal to find out what happened to her sister and clear her own name. But as Emma digs deeper, she uncovers a shocking truth that could put her own life in danger.

With its heart-pounding suspense and page-turning twists, The First Lie is a gripping thriller that will keep you guessing until the very end.
